

Leaving the moorings at Carrabelle....early morning before the gulf crossing.....red skies..turns out isn't always a warning.....

Dolphins playing beside Ananda.....five or six of them showed up to play in the bow wave

Pelican passenger from apalachicola to carrabelle

Unbelievable, but she wrapped those webbed feet around the safety rail and balanced

